

Apr 02: Sun City talks end with forced agreement	P.136
President's powers	P.136
War intensifies in the east	P.137
May 02: MLC and Kabila 'will form government'	P.138
Posts allocated	P.138
May 02: Mugabe's troops may be sticking point in bid for deal	P.139
June 02: Constitutional debate as Rwanda prepares offensive	P.140
Eastern tension	P.140
Buying time	P.140
Kisangani events	P.141
July 02: War mounts in East while talks on transition drag on	P.141
Fighting in the east	P.141
Prime minister's role	P.142
Sept 02: Kabila tactically ahead as Sun City agreement is buried	P.142
Army job disagreement	P.143
Rebels now divided	P.143
Withdrawals	P.144
Backing for UN force, but no troops	P.144
Dec 02: Peace is signed amidst accolades, but agreement remains to be implemented	P.145
Signed with reservations	P.146
Weapons seized	P.147
Hard tone from Kinshasa	P.148
Monuc force increased	P.148
Feb 03: Lack of implementation blamed by Kagame and Kabila	P.148
Pretoria talks	P.148

UN PEACEKEEPING - AN EVOLUTION

P.149

Sept 01: SA peacekeeping called a 'success'	P.149
Oct 01: SA military to be increased	P.150
Apr 02: Funds for demobilisation pledged	P.150
Aug 02: Doubts on SA's peace-keeping	P.150
Nov 02: UN peace force debated as UK considers privateers	P.151
New UN convention?	P.151
Feb 03: Private military companies seek a way into peace-keeping operation	P.152
Apr 03: South African deployment awaited	P.153
May 03: France offers troops for Ituri in holding operation	P.153
Rwanda not keen	P.154
June 03: Fighting between European force and militias 'unlikely'	P.154
No mandate outside Bunia	P.155
Political process	P.156
Beyond 'ethnic' dimension	P.156
June 03: South Africa deploys peacekeepers	P.157
Mai-Mai accusations	P.157
July 03: UN agrees on expanded force, SA boosts French in Bunia	P.157
SA mission in Kivu	P.158
Aug 03: French leave Bunia	P.158
Well-equipped	P.158
Northern Katanga rampage	P.159
Eastern Kasai unrest	P.159
Mai-Mai included	P.159
Sept 03: UN Ituri force still needs testing, militias shift ground	P.160
Reintegrating the militias	P.161